Five Lofts in Old Mercantile Section Change Hands; Valued at $750,000.

54 FRONT STREET RESOLD

New Owner for Arbour Casino; Sale of Fourth Avenue Loft Consummated.

Interest in the old mercantile section just west of Broadway, was revived yeaterday by the negotiation of transactions affecting five loft buildings valued in the aggregate at $750,000. The largest of the deals involved the six story biulding at 57 to 63 Greene street and the abutting eight story structure at 64 to 68 Wooster street.

The buildings were formerly occupied by L. F. Dommerich & Co. They were sold yesterday by the Greene Street Realty Company, Otto F. Dommerich president, to a buyer whose name was not revealed. The latter was represented by Lachman & Goldsmith, attorneya. The law firm of Olcott, Bonynge, Mc-Manus & Ernst represented the seller. L. Tanenbaum, Strauss & Co. were the brokers. The property was sold for all cash, free of all encumbrances and mortgages, and will be held without a mortgage by the new owner.

The Greene street building occupies a plot 100x100 adjoining the northwest corner of Broome. The structure on the Wooster street side stands on a plot 55.2x100. They were held at $200,000.

Another sale in the same neighborhood was that of the eight story loft structure.

t 107 and 109 Bleecker street, north at 107 and 109 Bleecker street, north-west corner of Greene street, on plot 49x100, which was disposed of by the estate of John E. Parsons in an all cash transaction. The holding price was $150,000. The buyer, a Mr. Powell, also purchased the adjoining eight story structure, 50x100, at 111 and 113 Bleecker street from Richard and Henry Sidenburg. This property, which was held at $125.000, gives the owner a Bleecker street frontage of 100 feet.

In another deal Mr. Powell purchased the eight story loft building, 50x81.6, at 20 and 22 Waverly place, southeast corner of Greene street. The seller was the cetate of Simon Goldenberg, which held the property at $175,000.

RESELLS 54 FRONT STREET.

Pront street was again in evidence in reports of yesterday's trading. ough the Charles F. Noyes Company ence W. Eckhardt, president of the Markham Realty Corporation, made a quick resale of the five story and base-ment building at 54 Front street, south-west corner of Cuylers alley. The property is 21.7x$2 and was purchased by Mr. Eckhardt a few days ago from the Franklin Trust Company. It is valued ge $50,000. The buyer is identified with prominent shipping interests and it is understood that the building will be re-modelled and occupied for office pur-

The Markham Realty Corporation has owned many properties on this street, including 46, 48, 52, 71, 73 and 84 Front street, several of which have been resold through the Noyes company for occupancy. Henry P. Mölloy of the firm of Rudd, Wood & Molloy represented the chasers of 54 Front street in yester-

REAL ESTATE

PLANT ON BOWERY

The big structure at the northwest corner of Bowery and Bayard street, formerly used as a power plant by the Third Avenue Rallway Company, was leased yesterday by Jacob Finkelstein & Sons to the Modern Grade Renting Company. The lease is for twenty-one years and involves an aggregate rental of $350,000. The property has a frontage of 100 feet on the Bowery, 200 feet on Bayard street and 100 feet on Elizabeth

The lessee has arranged to improve the property with stores on the Bowery and Bayard street side and a garage on the stories to the present structure at an estimated cost of $75,000. The deal has caused some comment, as this particular section of the Bowery has been dormant from the real estate point of view for

Silk Designs Popular

BREAKING away from the conventional design and coloring in slik goods some manufacturers have adopted the bizarre ideas of Greenwich Village originators, and their output is said to be meeting with popular favor.

Manufacturers who have brought out the innovation say the demand for the new sliks is increasing steadily.
